VOTE! MODEL CONTEST 2008

Grillin' & Chillin'

From the all-American Fourth of July backyard barbeque to pool parties and chic beach bashes-- do it all in style.

When in... Brazil – try a Caipirinha, the latest trend in cocktails this summer. It's made with a pure sugar cane-based rum that hails from Brazil called cachaca – considered the hottest new nod to a classic margarita. The organic version, Cuca Fresca, just hit Central Florida and is available at local fine spirits retailers. Fruity drinks packed with sugar and tiny umbrellas are no longer in style! Or, for an adult-only citrus cooler with a bubbly finish, add honey to red grapefruit juice and top off the mixture with a generous splash of chilled, sparkling Rosé wine.
